

HERE WE GO AGAIN... IT'S a double Monday; the first day of the workweek after a three-day weekend. Should we call it Terrible Tuesday?

GET CURIOUS! VOTED "#1 SUMMER Day Camp" for two consecutive years, Camp Edmo is for kids pre-K through entering 4th grade. It's for kids who love to explore, create, have fun and grow. The Arts, Science and Animation themes are designed in partnership with the Exploratorium, California Academy of Sciences, Zeum and MOCHA. Every week includes themed days, including Costume Day, Wacky Water Day, Family Fridays and more. Enroll and learn more about Camp Edmo at www.campedmo.org. Camp Edmo is in nine Bay Area locations: Palo Alto (Palo Verde Elementary School at 3450 Louis Road), Cupertino (L.P. Collins Elementary School at 10300 North Blaney Avenue), San Francisco, Alameda, Oakland, Moraga and Larkspur.

"TONGUE OF A BIRD" IS a live stage production about Maxine, a search-and-rescue pilot on a mission to find a missing girl lost somewhere in the Adirondacks. It is now showing, through June 19th, at Dragon Productions, 535 Alma St. in Palo Alto. Call (800) 838-3006 to buy tickets or for more information.
